

HIV/AIDS Clinical Management and Counseling

Lectures on:

Module I. Epidemiology and Prevention Strategies for HIV/AIDS in Thailand

Module II. HIV Pathogenesis and Natural History

Module III. Assessment of HIV-Infected Patients

- At initial Visit
- When to start ART

Module IV. Manifestation of HIV/AIDS

- Neurological Manifestation in AIDS
- Skin Manifestation in AIDS
- Radiological Interpretation in HIV/AIDS Clinical Practice
- Ophthalmic Manifestation in HIV/AIDS including CMV Retinitis Clinic

Module V. Special Situation in HIV

- HIV&TB Co-Infection
- Antenatal Care for HIV-Infected Pregnant Women with PMTCT Program
- Pediatric HIV-Infected Children

Module VI. Management.

- OI Prophylaxis.
- Microbiological Diagnosis for Opportunistic Infections.
- Immunological Diagnosis and Monitoring for HIV/AIDS
- Pitfall of Anti-Retroviral Therapy
- Diagnosis and Management of ART Failure
- Long-term Complication of ART
- Common Drug Interaction in Clinical Practice
- Immune Reconstitution Syndrome
- Anti-Retroviral in Special Situation and Post Exposure Prophylaxis

Module VII. Counseling and Holistic Care.

- Challenging Problems on Counseling in PLWHA
- Holistic Care and Palliative Care for PLWHA

Module VIII Practice.

- Site visit: Operation Theatre and Labour Room
- Site visit: Airborne Infection Isolation Room
- Ward round

Duration: 5 - 10 days

For more information please contact:

- Mrs. Chanokpun Dilokomol e-mail: Dilokchanok@gmail.com Tel. (66) 2590-3702

- Dr. Napat Chitvarakorn e-mail: Napatc@yahoo.com

- web site: www.bamras.org/